Join our Inspire Mentoring Program!

We are entering our 4th year and look forward to our group activities, including fun outings and community service! Our mission is to cultivate relationships among younger and older dancers through: Inspiration, Citizenship, and Dance!! Our program will help each individual improve self-esteem, social and communication skills, technique and a LOVE for Dance. This program is open to all studio members. Mentors and Mentees needed! Sign up at the studio desk!

Community Service Event at St. Mary's Home

New Teacher Introduction:

Amber Romano, native of Rhode Island, began her classical ballet training at the age of five. Upon graduating high school, she began her professional career with Nashville Ballet in Tennessee, where she performed for four years. Amber moved to Norfolk in August 2016 to work for Todd Rosenlieb Dance and Virginia Ballet Theatre, where she performs classical ballet, contemporary dance, and modern dance repertory. She is also a co-director of the Virginia Ballet Theatre Pre-Professional Ensemble, and teaches classical ballet throughout Hampton Roads.

Congratulations on another amazing recital!

Company Corner

Congratulations to our National Grand Champion winning competition team who competed at Star Talent Nationals this summer! EPAC won numerous 1st place and overall awards in addition to placing in the top 3 in ALL FOUR CATEGORIES of the National Extravaganza! Way to go dancers!

Company dancers had a great summer celebrating at our annual pool party and attending summer dance intensives!

The Company photo for our upcoming season will be taken on Saturday, Oct. 21 at 9:30 am!! All company members must be present!

Girls wear black strappy leotard, pink tights, ballet shoes and hair in a classic ballet bun.

Boys wear black pants and a black t-shirt with black ballet shoes.
